2 Tenant Farmers In Hempstead Get Their Own Places

Tom Stuart, Orden L. Darby Obtain Federal Loans

40 YEARS TO PAY

Bankhead-Jones Loans Approved for These Two

The days of farming on rented land are over for two more Hempstead county families, those of Tom Stuart, tenant farmer living about two miles east of Ozan, and those of Orden L. Darby, tenant farmer living west of Hope.

Announcement of the approval of loans under the Bankhead-Jones Tenant Purchase Act for the purchase of farms of their own has been made recently by Earl King, chairman of the county tenant purchase advisory committee, and by W. M. Sparks, Farm Security Administration supervisor.

With the proceeds of the loan Stuart intends to purchase the 80-acre farm of the D. M. Citty estate east of Ozan, and Darby will purchase an 80-acre plot on the Bunkley farm near Hope. The loans also include an amount sufficient to erect a five-room dwelling and a new barn and to repair other farm buildings and fences under the terms of the Bankhead-Jones Act, these farmers will have 40 years in which to repay their loans, with interest at 3 per cent.

Stuart and his family and Darby and his family will operate their new farm according to farm and home plans worked out by themselves with the assistance of W. M. Sparks, FSA supervisor, and Mrs. Laura Hodnett, the county FSA home management supervisor. These plans call for home production of food and feed, crop diversification and soil conservation.

These two families are about the fourteenth and fifteenth tenants in the county to become land owners through a Bankhead-Jones loan since the act became operative in 1937. Local FSA officials state that loans have been approved for several other tenant farmers too, including D. E. Goodlett, of Ozan, for a 140-acre farm near Cross Roads, Jack Cromer for a 60-acre farm near Blevins, and A. C. Hutson for a 100-acre farm near Doyle.

Governor Bailey Is Slated to Be Delegation Head

Arkansas' 18 Votes to Be Cast for the President

IGNORE SENATORS

Neither Mrs. Caraway Nor Miller to Be Delegates

LITTLE ROCK—(AP)—Touched off by an unscheduled address by Governor Bailey, the Democratic State Committee Tuesday pledged Arkansas' 18 votes at the party's national convention to President Roosevelt's nomination.

Bailey was chosen delegate-at-large and informed sources said he would be named chairman of the state delegation.

For the first time in many years the list of delegates failed to include the names of the state's two U. S. Senators, Hattie W. Caraway and John E. Miller. Neither was named. The committee rejected the petition of Dr. Walter Scott McNutt, Arkadelphia, seeking to have his name entered as a gubernatorial candidate on the August primaries ballot.

Army Issues Call For New Recruits

Lt. Weisenberger Urges Hempstead Men to Join

Lt. Royce Weisenberger, Inf-lies, who has been assisting local young men to enlist in the U. S. Army is in receipt of the following communication from Major Vinton L. James, Jr., Recruiting Officer for the U. S. Army with Headquarters at 253 Federal Office Building, Texarkana: "I wish to express my appreciation for your interest in the past and hope to have your continued cooperation in connection with recruiting in the future. It is such cooperation that enables this office to function at its best."

Lt. Weisenberger reports that about 25 young men from Hempstead County have made application for enlistment during the past three weeks. He urges all who are at all interested, are from 18 to 35, single and citizens, to report to the Texarkana, Ark., Recruiting station or contact him and this time. An early application in the application to choose from vacancies in various army services, when enlisting. The applicant need not report until notified of a vacancy he prefers, and is under no obligation to report at all should circumstances arise after his application that would make his enlistment undesirable. He adds that there are several young men in the county now who have passed all requirements and are awaiting a vacancy in a desired service. In view of the fact that a large expansion of the Army is soon to be made, many desirable services will soon be available, it seems.

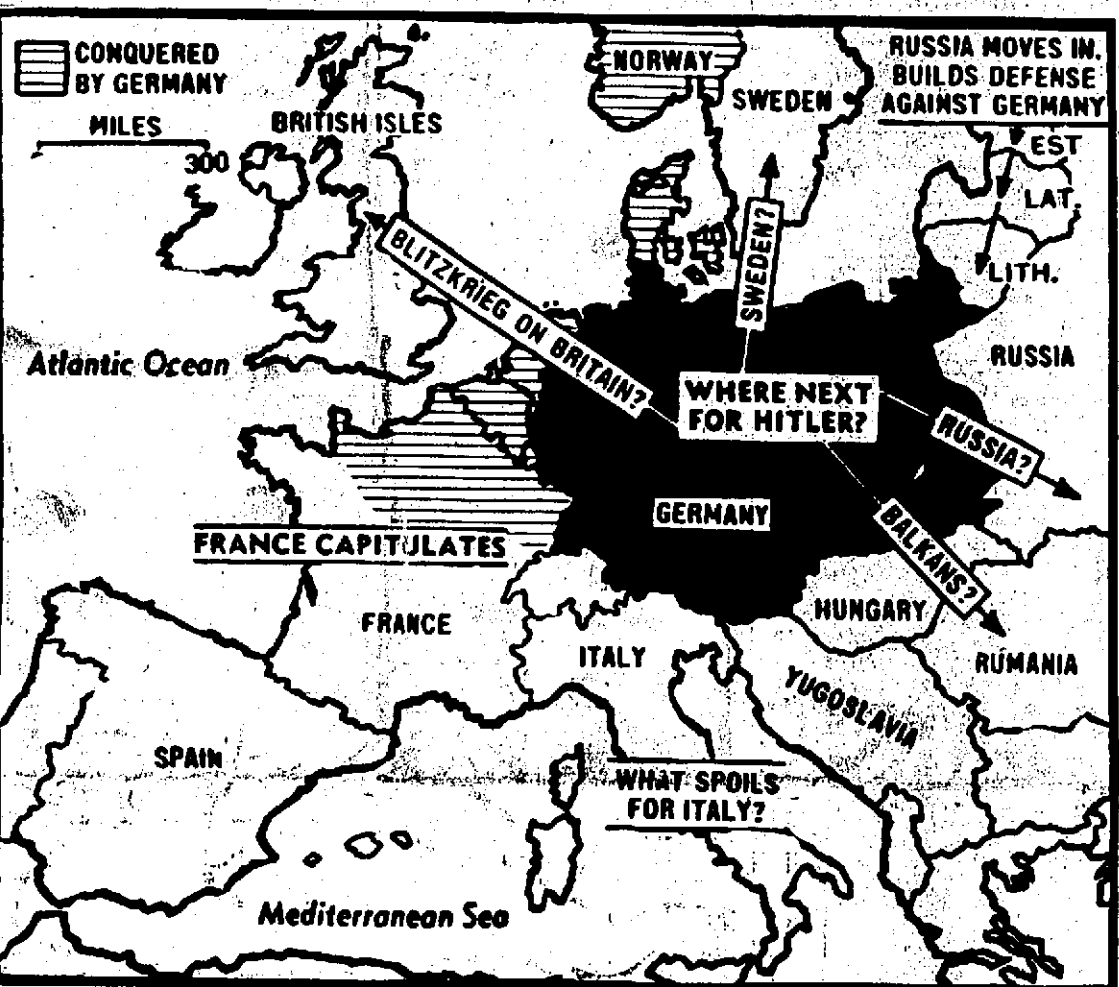

Young men with high school educations will be accepted as mechanics and ground men in the air service now. Army cadets must have 2 years college training.

In voicing an appeal to the young men of the United States to enlist in the Army now, the slogan "Defend your country" has been adopted. The answer of the young men from Hempstead County to date shows that they are ready and willing to answer the call. It is hoped that many more will see fit to do likewise.

Powers and Bailey Buy Diamond Cafe

Purchase Local Restaurant From C. E. Lane

Buck Powers, assistant manager of the Checkered cafe, and Ralph Bailey, circuit clerk of Hempstead county, announced Tuesday their purchase of the Diamond cafe from C. E. Lane.

The new ownership will take charge of the Diamond, Third and Elm streets, July 1. Mr. Powers will be manager of the restaurant, Mr. Bailey continuing in the circuit clerk's office until the expiration of his term December 31, after which he will be associated with Mr. Powers at the Diamond.

Both Mr. Bailey and Mr. Powers are widely known here. Mr. Bailey was with the old store firm of Johnson, Billingsley & Co., then four years with Geo. W. Robinson & Co., and left the Robinson company to make his successful race for circuit clerk, now completing his fourth year.

Mr. Powers has been all his life in either the grocery, meat or restaurant business. He came to Hope in 1929, joining W. M. Ramsey, proprietor of the Checkered cafe, then on Division street, becoming assistant manager later when Mr. Ramsey moved the business to its present quarters at Third and Main streets. Mr. Powers has been in the restaurant business for 12 years. He and Mrs. Powers have one child, and own a home in Hope.

The new Diamond proprietors plan to remodel the kitchen, but have announced no other changes.

C. E. Lane, retiring owner, said Tuesday he had no immediate plans, but would be in Hope for the next month or so.

Community Sing at the Unity Baptist

There will be a community singing at the Unity Missionary Baptist church, beginning at 7:45 p. m. Tuesday. All singers and lovers of music are invited to come.

Draper Believed Hiding Near Hope

Slayer Is Reported to Have Relatives Near Here

A report was received here early Tuesday that eight Oklahoma state prison officers were scheduled to arrive in Hope sometime Tuesday in search for Charles Draper 45, lifetime convict, who escaped from the Oklahoma state prison June 8.

Draper, who was sentenced for the triple slaying of Jack O'Dell, Eugene Harris, of Oklahoma, and a fruit dealer of Springfield, Ark., is believed to be hiding at the home of relatives near Hope.

Local police reported that no information had been received concerning this report.

Auto Victims Are Improved Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. Ira McFarland Continue Journey

Joseph Author Nippon, seriously injured in an auto accident Sunday, was reported to be doing favorably Tuesday by Josephine hospital attendants.

Nippon's arm had to be amputated just below the shoulder as a result of the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira McFarland of Houston, Texas, who suffered minor injuries Saturday when the car in which they were riding ran off the high embankment on the highway 67 viaduct east of Hope, continued their journey to New York by train Monday night.

Otto Smith, who sustained an injured back and bruises in a jollop race accident at Fair park Sunday, was much improved Tuesday.

Peace Plan Secret; French to Fight If Terms Dishonorable

France Must Accept or Reject Before Terms Are Disclosed—Britain Resolved to Fight on Alone

BERLIN—(AP)—DNE, the official German news agency, announced Tuesday night Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini had agreed on the position of the Rome-Berlin axis concerning France's request for an armistice.

France Fights on

BORDEAUX, France—(AP)—Marshal Petain ordered all French soldiers and sailors on land and sea and air Tuesday night to keep on fighting, even while he awaited Adolf Hitler's reply to his plea for an honorable peace.

Peace negotiations have not even begun, he told his men.

"Battle for Britain"

LONDON—(AP)—Winston Churchill proclaimed Tuesday to his parliament and people the beginning of the "battle for Britain" and declared directly that its loss would plunge even the United States "in the abyss of a new Dark Age."

He said with over 1,250,000 of her own men under arms, the dominions armies are on her soil and the navy is prepared to meet invasion.

By the Associated Press

Adolf Hitler rode through "Heil, Hitler!" cheering crowds in ancient Munich Tuesday to meet his axis partner, Benito Mussolini, and dictate a heralded "unconditional surrender" peace offer to France.

As France still fought with desperate fury and rallied 350,000 troops to a new defense line near the junction of the Saone and Doubs rivers, the German press clamored for harsh terms to avenge the "humiliation" of the Versailles treaty.

The terms of the axis-dictated peace requested by France are not expected to be disclosed until after France's new soldier-premier, aged Marshal Petain, has accepted or rejected them.

It was made emphatically clear that France, wounded though she may be, stood ready to fight on unless granted an "honorable peace." France's powerful fleet, second only to Britain's among European navies, was reported in Berlin as probably already "spirited off" by the British to prevent it falling into German hands.

No Answer Yet

BORDEAUX, France—(AP)—The French cabinet met again Tuesday with Premier Marshal Petain still awaiting an answer to the aged marshal's Sunday night appeal to the enemy for "peace with honor."

The exhausted French armies presumably were still fighting a losing battle.

The customary official communique has not been forthcoming Tuesday afternoon.

Italy in Warning

ROME—(AP)—France was warned Tuesday that Germany and Italy were prepared to line up their troops from the Atlantic to the Mediterranean for a "final assault" upon her if she refused to accept the conditions for peace dictated by Hitler and Mussolini.

The threat was presented here by the official Stefani news agency while Mussolini himself was meeting Hitler at Munich to decide what should be demanded of the defeated French.

In Berlin, authorized sources said France must either accept or reject the peace terms of the Axis powers before they are made known to the world.

"Gust?"
"Was—was... he really here? I mean, we didn't just dream it?"
"Naw," Gusty tried to sound disgusted, but his voice shook. "You can see the ticket, can't you?"
Francie nodded dreamily. "Jerry Finney...," she breathed, and the name raced a chill along her spine.
Gusty was deep in a reverie of his own. "I got 50 bucks in the bank," he said finally. "A guy'd have to squeeze some to get there on that."
"You!" Francie exclaimed. "What about me?"
"Don't get yourself in an uproar, Sugar. Girl singers are a dime a dozen. Good hot trumpet men are mighty scarce. Besides, it was me he was talking to."
"Oh!" Francie's brown eyes were stormy. "That's not true. You're—you're so conceited you think no one else—"
"Gilly smoke, Francie, wasn't it me that first got you to swing out?" Gusty stared reproachfully. "That old aunt of yours was teaching you a lot of long-hair stuff. Didn't I fix it with Duke so you could sing with the Duke and now you're as good as I am?"
"Well, I am!" Francie raged. "Mr. Koon distinctly said he didn't care which of us went."
Gusty snorted. "Just because you reminded him of an old sweetheart." He took out the pigskin wallet Francie had given him the previous Christmas. Calmly he folded the ticket and slipped it inside. "I got to think this over, Francie."
